

Forest Management and Conservation in Michigan: A Workshop for Teachers

Michigan is rich with an extensive and diverse forest resource. Forest products and services are essential to human survival and lifestyles. How do forests develop and change? How are we managing this valuable resource today? This workshop will provide teachers with field-based training in the benefits of sustainable forest management. Participants will gain a basic understanding of forest management by reviewing basic biology/ecology and seeing it applied in actual management activities.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, go to <http://michiganforests.org>

WHEN?

22-26 June 2015

WHERE?

Ralph A. MacMullan
Conference Center,
Roscommon, MI

HOW MUCH?

Actual workshop cost: $700

Less sponsor support: $600

Your cost: $100

EARN 3 CE CREDITS

(SB-CEUs from Michigan
State University*)

*approval pending

Sponsored by...

Bill Botti, Executive Director
6120 S Clinton Trail
Eaton Rapids, MI 48827

Phone: 517-663-3423
E-mail: miforest@acd.net